I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for I'm free.
I'm following the path, God laid for me.
I took his hand, when I heard him call.
I took flight, and left it all.*

Profile of Life

*"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;
~ Ecclesiastes 3:1~*

A Time to be Born:

Roosevelt Bellamy was born on February 10, 1949 in Bulloch County, Georgia. He was the 12th of fourteen children born to the late William and Easter Bellamy.

A Time to Live:

Roosevelt attended the public schools of Bulloch County finishing the 11th grade. He was wed to Ernestine Mikell and to this union four children were born. He worked as a Logger and Farmer until his health failed. He was a member of God's Greater Mission, where he was a deacon. having joined under the leadership of Bishop Louis Hills.

In 1994, he met the woman who would become his devoted wife, Sis. Linda Lonon. They were joined in holy matrimony on June 7, 1996.

A Time to Die:

On March 1, 2015 at 8:01 p.m., the Lord looked down with a smile and welcomed Deacon Bellamy home to eternal rest.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife Missy Linda Bellamy; four sons, Timothy (Stacey) Bellamy, William Bellamy, Loren Mikell and Darren (Pedetha) Lonon; four daughters, Bertha Bellamy Cooper, Sharelle/Sharonda (Andre) Winding, Lydia Lonon and Ieisha (Jermaine) Tillman; two sisters, Betty (James) Roberts and Pastor Willie Mae (Ernest) Williams, 42 grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Roosevelt, we had some rough times but most of the time we shared were good. I knew you were meant for me all those years ago when we met at God's Greater Mission. You will be missed greatly. I love you, your wife, Linda.

Rosa Parks A/K/A Roosevelt,, I will miss you, my riding partner, going to and from Coastal Care. We always had each other's back and I thank you so much for the dance lessons. Love, your daughter, Lydia .

Rosie, We will miss you but our love will continue to live on. Your daughter and son, Ieisha and Darren
